Re: Refusal and Return of Cashier's Check

Second Demand for Retraction and Apology in Reference to Letter of January 20, 2016 Submitted by Mario Bouchard to City of Dearborn officials

Second Demand for Retraction and Apology in Reference to Repeated and Ongoing Slanders Committed by Mario and Nancy Bouchard

Dear Mrs. and Mr. Bouchard,

Enclosed please find the Cashier's Check dated November 29, 2016 that was sent to my client, Mr. Paul Sheridan. The check is being returned to you as my client has declined its acceptance. We wish to reiterate our demand for retraction and apology submitted on behalf of Mr. Paul V. Sheridan in regards to the false and defamatory statements you have made about him. Attached please find a copy of our original Demand Letter dated November 18, 2016.

Once more, Demand is hereby made upon both of you and Mrs. Bouchard to issue a full and complete retraction, in writing, and an apology to Mr. Sheridan for having made these false and defamatory statements. These statements have damaged Mr. Sheridan's reputation, as well as caused him great consternation that you would damage his reputation which he has worked for many, many years to earn, create and maintain, and which is of particular importance to him and the people he serves in his highly esteemed profession. Payment to Mr. Sheridan by Cashier's Check in exchange for a "release of all claims" is inadequate to remedy the harm caused to him.

All communications between you and Mr. Sheridan must come through my office as I have been retained by him to handle this matter. Please do not contact Mr. Sheridan any further and send all correspondence directly to me. If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact my office.

Sincerely,

Bryan Yaldou
