

QUOTES FROM 'GLORIOUS TO VIEW'

“ Like every parent you have to use reverse psychology to get your kids to do something.

So we would never tell our daughter that you should go to Cornell. If anything we'd say,

'Heh, you should go to a school near home!'

And then my wife brought her on a college tour out East . . . and our daughter just fell in love with Cornell!

And you know . . . it has to come from inside. It came to her from herself. She just loved this place! She loved the visit. And, she felt that there was something special in the atmosphere, that nurturing environment that I had experienced, she felt it from inside.

And by herself she said,

'Dad, if I get in, that's where I would like to go.' ”
