3 4 5 6 7 8 9 A 10 Q 11 A	Wright law firm. Mr. Ridella, I have been given the representation by Chrysler's counsel, Mr. Miller, that the only subject that you are going to testify on is the maintenance of Paul Sheridan's files from the time that they were taken from his office to the present. Is that your understanding of your involvement in this case? In this case, or in this deposition, you mean? Yes. Yes. All right. MR. WATTS: Mr. Miller? MR. MILLER: Yes, sir. MR. WATTS: Is that an agreement that we have, or do I need to just probe and probe and probe all day long? Or can I limit my questions to that particular subject with the knowledge that he will not be asked questions outside of that subject at the time of trial? MR. MILLER: If I understand your question, Mr. Ridella's purpose here is to testify regarding the custody and control of the files maintained by Mr. Paul Sheridan.	Page 13	2 Q 3 4 A 5 6 7 Q 8 9 A 10 11 12 13 Q 14 15 A 16 Q 17 A 18 19	I can't recall. That computer had disks with information content in it? There were computer disks found among the effects of Mr. Sheridan, and those were placed in storage also in the security area, yes. Who placed the computer disks found within Mr. Sheridan's office in storage? All of Mr. Sheridan's effects, his documents, any disks that were found were placed in storage by Mrs. Ray and Mr. Stogran, again, with the assistance of Mr. Brian Bradley. Mr. Ridella, is it your sworn testimony under oath that nobody accessed his files? At what time period, sir? At any time period. Access was obtained to Mr. Sheridan's files at my direction and also it occurred at one other time prior to my involvement that I'm familiar with. All right. Let's talk about those two times. And by the way, in that last answer when you said access to his files, I didn't ask you the question but we were both talking about computerized files, right? Hello.

And with that understanding, I will limit my questions to that particular subject. (BY MR. WATTS): Mr. Ridella, when were the files taken out of Mr. Sheridan's office? To the best of my recollection, they were removed on December the 19th, 1994. And when was Mr. Sheridan's office locked to prevent others from gaining egress to it? Mr. Sheridan worked in an area, a cubicle area. He did not have an office with a locked door. Okay. All right. And so on December the 19th, his files were removed from that cubicle area? That is correct. And by whom were his files removed? The files were boxed by a Mr. Roger Stogran (phonetic) — I can't spell his last name — and a Miss Nancy Ray. Nancy Ray was the director of pardon me, the manager of the personnel function and she had ordered Mr. Stogran to begit the boxing of Sheridan's records and the	i of	25 A 1 Q 2 3 4 5 A 6 Q 7 8 9 10 11 12 A 13 Q 14 15 A 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 Q 23	In other words, that last question that I asked you is when were his files accessed. I meant computerized files or data from his computer. Is that what you meant by your answer? No, I meant — I meant generally, all his files. Okay. Let's split it up for a second. With regard to your general answer about access was obtained on two occasions, once at your direction and once before the materials were taken from his office, you talked about that in the context of his files generally; is that right? That's correct. Before the files were removed from his office, who had access to them? Like I said, the files were removed and placed in storage on December the 19th of 1994, placed in storage in a storage facility in the Auburn Hills Technology Center, security department, and to the best my recollection and knowledge, nobody had access to those documents until early part of January of 1995. All right. In the early part of January of 1995, who had access to the documents? I understand that Mr. Dennis Malecki, who was Paul Sheridan's supervisor, and Dick Winter, who

Okay. So on December the 19th, Mr. Stogran an Mrs. Ray boxed up his files and they transported them to a security location within the Chrysler Technical Center in Auburn Hills, Michigan? Yes, and that was with the assistance of a Mr. Brian Bradley who was the manager of Security Operations at the Auburn Hills Technology Cente Okay. At the time that this procedure was taking place, were you aware that it was happening? No, I was not. Okay. When were you first made aware that Mr. Sheridan's files had been taken from his office? To the best of my recollection, early January of 1995. And how was it that you first became aware that Mr. Sheridan's files had been removed from his office? I can't recall, Mikal. Okay. Now, Mr. Sheridan had a computer in his office; is that correct? Yes, he did. Did that computer have software in it?		5 Å 6 7 8 9 Q 10 11 12 A 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 Q 22 22	was Mr. Malecki's supervisor, obtained access to Mr. Sheridan's files by entering the locked security room where the files were stored. And who was with them? Mr. Brian Bradley was the manager of the function—of the Security Operations, I believe opened the facilities for them and Mr. Malecki and Mr. Winter were alone in the room. And for what reason were Mr. Malecki and Mr. Winter allowed into the secured room to access Mr. Sheridan's files in early January of 1995? Mr. Winter informed me that he went into the security room for the purpose of determining what was Chrysler's property and what was Mr. Sheridan's property. He and Mr. Malecki made some markings on the boxes in which the documents were stored and then they left the room. They also located some Federal Express air bills which they handed to Mr. John Fonger who was present outside the room. Were any documents removed from the files at that time? Mr. — Mr. Fonger had removed the Federal Express air bills from the room — He took them with him after he had been handed those by Mr. Winter and

A I became aware that Mr. Malecki and Mr. Winter had obtained access to the room shortly thereafter, and at that point in time I instructed Mr. Fonger that no individual would be gaining access to that room at the security office except through my permission. Mr. Malecki and Mr. Winter did not have your permission to access the files in early January of 1995; isn't that correct? That is that is correct, they did not seek my permission, yes. And Mr. Malecki and Mr. Winter who were they were both in the Minivan Operations; is that right? A They were Paul Sheridan's superiors. And Mr. Malecki and Mr. Winter obtained access to Paul Sheridan's files in early January of 1995 both without your permission and without your knowledge; is that correct? That is correct.	Page 22 1 Q And with outside counsel, that would be the Dickinson, Wright firm? 3 A That is correct. 4 Q And would that include Mr. Marshall? 5 A He was not present. 6 Q Who was present from the Dickinson, Wright firm 7 when you went into the room with the Sheridan 8 documents in late February, early March of 1995? 9 A I believe that it was Mr. Charles Clippert. 10 Q Mr. Charles Clippert. And Mr. Clippert works for 11 Dickinson, Wright? 12 A Yes, he does. 13 Q All right. And so was it just the two of you? 14 A I don't recall. 15 Q Well, were you there? 16 A I was there. 17 Q Was Mr. Clippert there? 18 A I believe that he was, yes. 19 Q Was anybody else there? 20 A Others could have been because we were beginning 21 a process of inventorying the documents and 22 others were present with us. 23 Q Who else was there? 24 A We had selected three individuals to begin an

A That is correct. 9 Q Was the access to the files by Mr. Malecki and Mr. Winter in early January of 1995, which was done without your permission and without your knowledge, was it videotaped? 13 A I don't know. 14 Q Well, to your knowledge, was it videotaped? 15 A I don't think it was. 16 Q All right. You haven't seen any such videotape of that entrance to the files by Mr. Sheridan's supervisors, Mr. Malecki and Mr. Winter, who were both with Minivan Operations? 20 A That is correct, I have not seen any videotape. 21 Q Well, does Chrysler have videotape equipment at its disposal? 22 A I believe it does. We have a graphics department. 23 Q Okay. And did anybody ever ask Mr. Malecki and	Clippert and myself, and that was a Miss Catherine Moran, a Mr. Charles Murphy, and a Sharon Vasher. Q Catherine Moran worked where? S A She's in the security department in the Chrysler Highland Park facility. Mr. Charles Murphy, where does he work or where did he work? Mr. Winter why they didn't videotape their access to these very sensitive files? A I don't know. Q You never did? I never did. Q Okay. After Mr. Malecki and Mr. Winter accessed the files in early January of 1995 without your knowledge and without your permission, three days later you issued an order to Mr. Fonger, a security man, that nobody was to access the files without your permission, correct? That is correct. And subsequent to that point in time, did you ever go into the room where these files were to check and see whether the same amount of files that were taken out by Mr. Stogran and Mr. (sic) Ray were still present? I went into the room probably in the latter part of February, early part of March of 1995. And in late February, early March of 1995, who did you go into the room with the Sheridan documents with? A I went into the room with our outside counsel for the purpose of beginning a process of inventorying the documents.	In late February and early March of 1995, when yourself, Mr. Clippert, perhaps Ms. Moran, Mr. Murphy and Miss Vasher, the Chrysler representatives and the Dickinson, Wright representatives went into this room with the Sheridan files, did anybody invite Mr. Sheridan or his legal counsel to observe to insure that nothing untoward happened towards the files? A I want to clarify for you, Mr. Watts, the purpose of that document review in late February, early March. Q Well, why don't you answer the question first and then I'll ask you the question of the purpose. They were not present. A I right. Was anybody did anybody inform them that people were about to go into the files and perform an inventory? A Yes, they were aware of that. Q Okay. Was any videotape taken of the inventorying process? No, there was not. Okay. Now, how long did this inventorying process in late February, early March take place? A I can't recall exactly, Mr. Watts, but it was a lengthy process, a couple days.

			November 11, 1990
1 Q Now, at the time that this inventorying process 2 took place in late February, early March, were 3 you aware that Chrysler was under an order by a 4 state district judge in Tampa, Florida not to 5 disturb the files? 6 A I was unaware of any order from a court in Tamp 7 Florida. 8 Q At the time that you all performed this inventory 9 in late February, early March of 1995, were you 10 aware of any orders across the country 11 prohibiting Chrysler from disturbing the Sherida 12 files? 13 A No, I was not. 14 Q Okay. Prior to the inventorying of the Sheridan 15 documents in late February, early March of 1995 16 had you had any discussions with anybody in the 17 Office of General Counsel defending product 18 liability cases against the Chrysler minivan? 19 A No, I did not. 20 Q Okay. So I take it that prior to February, early 21 March of 1995, nobody in the Office of General 22 Counsel had informed you of any orders with 23 regard to the Sheridan files concerning the 24 Chrysler minivan product liability liftgate latch 25 litigation?	oa, n	were Where Marc A Well, Marc Clarif Mich document with Mich World	Page 28 e part of March of 1995 when the documents transported. e were the documents transported in late h of 1995? 1 A I can't recall any discussions. 2 Q Okay. When you said that the inventorying process took quite a while, how many are we talking about several days or several weeks? 5 A I think I said it took two days, a couple days. 6 That's my recollection of it. 7 Q All right. And at the end of the couple days, was the room locked up again? 9 A Yes, it was. 10 Q All right. And would the inventorying process that took place between Chrysler's security personnel, yourself and Chrysler outside counsel the Dickinson, Wright firm prior to that inventory, had anybody done an inventory of the Sheridan files? 16 A Let me clarify, Mr. Watts, that I and Mr. 17 Clippert were not doing the inventorying, which your question had implied. The inventorying wadone by the three individuals I mentioned earlier. 10 That's a fair qualification. Let me see if I can't go about it this way. During the process that took two days of inventorying the files, did you watch the process to make sure that no documents had been taken away?	as	A Yes, Okay time the loc Count A I can remer in Ar that it 1995 author locked that remer the do You shall be a that remer the do You shall be a fall be a fa	there were other occasions. Let's talk about those. Tell me the first that somebody accessed the Sheridan files in tocked room at Chrysler's Office of General issel in Highland Park. Told me you could not recall the first time comebody accessed the files from the locked at the Office of General Counsel. Prior to Sheridan's lawyers arriving to look at the did anybody access that locked room? Trecall, Mr. Watts, if after the boxes taken to Highland Park, transported to land Park, if the Dickinson, Wright lawyers to look at the documents before Mr. Sheridan its lawyers arrived or afterwards, but they
1 A I was there for part of the process. 2 Q But you were not there for all of the process? 3 A That's correct. 4 Q And the process was not videotaped? 5 A It was not videotaped. 6 Q Okay. Now, prior to this process of the inventorying of files in late February, early 8 March of 1995, had anybody else gone in and inventoried the documents to document what it with that was in the files? 11 A No, I gave nobody permission to go into the office area and to inventory the documents. 13 Q Well, when Mr. Winter and Mr. Malecki went in there without permission, did they inventory the files? 16 A They did not inventory the files. They made markings on the doc—on the boxes to the best of their knowledge of what was Chrysler property and what was Sheridan property. 10 Q Okay. Subsequent to the late February, early March of 1995 inventorying process that you've described for me, when was the next time someb was allowed into the room with the Sheridan files? 15 A The next incident occurred or next event occurred.	n cy oody	Q Mr. I and v I don recoll to Q But y took I can Q Who A When the roll A I reca with When I Recall Q Why officing were I A Tool	all that Mr. Sheridan came in April of 1995 his attorneys, Mr. Morgan, and Mr. Mazur. n they were present on each of the three sions, in the room with them was Mr. Scott ilton of Dickinson, Wright or Mr. Bob Brown of inson, Wright, both attorneys at the firm, or was a security official with them as well. were there Chrysler lawyers and a security ial there when Mr. Sheridan and his lawyers going through the Sheridan documents?

Mr. Thomas Kienbaum is our lead counsel, Chrysler's lead counsel in the case of Chrysler vs. Sheridan. All right. And Chrysler's lead counsel in the case of Chrysler vs. Sheridan received a letter from Mr. Sheridan's attorney, Courtney Morgan, on July the 14th of 1995, which was copied to a Mr. George Googasian or Googasian, G-o-o-g-a-s-i-a-n. Can you tell the jury who George Googasian is? George Googasian was appointed by Judge Sosnick, Edward Sosnick of the Oakland County Circuit Court here in Michigan to be the special discovery master and make recommendations to resolve certain discovery disputes that would arise between Chrysler and Sheridan in the Chrysler vs. Sheridan litigation. All right. And you recall shortly after Mr. Kienbaum received this letter from Mr. Morgan, being in discussions where these allegations that documents had been taken out and were not properly inventoried were made? I have a recollection that Mr. Morgan had so—had written a letter to Mr. Kienbaum to that effect, yes.	1 2 3 4 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 Q 20 21 A 22 A 23 24	that these matters are contained in a letter by Mr. Morgan. MR. MILLER: Well, let's be fair, Mikal. That letter says that those documents are not gone; it just notes that they are not listed in the inventory. That's a big difference. I think you ought to be fair in your characterization. MR. WATTS: Well, if you let me finish my question, we can go ahead and clarify things and get to it. MR. MILLER: Well, you had already characterized in that long litany gone, gone, gone and that's not what that says. MR. WATTS): Mr. Witness, as opposed to Mr. Counsel, did the inventory contain a reference to the liftgate latch general file? I can't recall Mr. Watts, I don't have the inventory in front of me. I don't know what it contains at this time. Do you know whether the inventory contained	Page 59

Now, Mr. Ridella, that letter is being faxed to you so that it can be an attached as an exhibit to the deposition, and it's a letter from Mr. Morgan to Mr. Kienbaum dated July 14, 1995, copying Mr. Googasian. And I want to ask you about your recollections concerning this. In July of 1995, were you made aware that Mr. Sheridan's lawyers specifically alleged that Chrysler's inventory failed to list and does not contain the liftgate latch general file? MR. MILLER: Do you want to wait until the letter is here so we can see that? MR. WATTS: Well, really what I want to find out is whether he recalls that first. THE WITNESS: I can't recall the specifics of that letter, Mr. Watts. (BY MR. WATTS): Okay. Do you recall that the letter specifically alleged that Chrysler's inventory did not list the liftgate latch competitive file? Mr. Watts, I'm aware that the letter made reference that that the inventory did not contain certain items, did not did not list certain items but, again, I can't recall the specific details of what they what Mr. Morgan	4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 Q 14 15 16 A 17 Q 18 19 20 21 22 A	references to anything dealing with liftgate latches? Well, let me if could clarify for you, the inventory was meant to be a description of what generally was found in the files of Mr. Sheridan, and to that extent, it's simply a recording of what the what the inventory people had found. Again, it was not meant to go into each and every document in the Sheridan records, but to be a broad brush general description of what they had located. MR. WATTS: Objection, nonresponsive. (BY MR. WATTS): Do you know whether the inventory listed anything dealing with liftgate latches? I can't recall, Mr. Watts. Do you recall a minute ago Mr. Miller interrupting the deposition with a speech about how none of those documents are gone; they are simply not listed in the inventory? Do you recall that? Yes, I do. And can you tell the members of the jury whether all the documents that I referenced concerning liftgate latches are in fact still in the
1 2 Q 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	claimed was not present in the inventory. Okay. I'll represent to you that in addition to claiming that the liftgate latch general and the liftgate latch competitive files were gone, that Safety Leadership Team meeting minutes were gone, Safety Leadership Team preliminary file was gone, litigate latch Safety Office file was gone, the H.G. Cook study was gone, FMVSS 206 general was gone, seat back strength general was gone, seat back strength sgone, rear crash survivability general is gone, FMVSS 301 is gone, side crashworthiness issues file is gone, FMVSS 214 is gone, bumper issues general is gone, S-or NS-body bumper file is gone, tail lamp studies by Zarowitz is gone, amber tail lamp NS-body is gone, rear seat headrest general and Zarowitz is gone, back-up light general is gone. Now MR. MILLER: Counsel, in regard to that, while I haven't seen the letter, you're simply saying that those are not in the inventory provided by Chrysler as opposed to they are not among the documents. Am I correct in that? MR. WATTS: Well, what I'm saying is	3 4 Q 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 A 13 14 Q 15 16 17 18 19 20	Sheridan documents? Well, Mr. Watts, I personally cannot answer that question. Okay. Well, the reason I'm curious is that Mr. Miller spent money for Ms. Moore to transcribe his long soliloquy about gone versus not in the inventory and yet yesterday he assured me that there were no liftgate latch documents in the Sheridan files. Do you know whether there are any liftgate latch documents in the Sheridan files? I have not personally been through Mr. Sheridan files. So with regard to this issue as to whether documents are gone with regard to this issue as to whether they were simply failed to be listed in the inventory, you can't help us about that one way or the other concerning liftgate latch files; is that right? All I can say is I'm aware of that the inventory was prepared and that I cannot I cannot tell you, because I've not been through the documents myself, what is in there and what is not in there specifically. Did you have a discussion with Miss Rita Burns or one of her paralegals in preparation for your deposition? Yes, I did. Did you meet with Mr. Miller in preparation for this deposition? Yes, I did. How long did you meet with them in preparation for the deposition? I would say about three or four hours. What was discussed? MR. All of my career at Chrysler I've been involved in issues concerning employment law, employee benefits law and matters concerning personnel and labor law in general. I also manage outside counsel in litigation that occurs both within Michigan and outstate. Now, Mr. Ridella, you've already testified in response to Mr. Watts' examination that you did become aware of certain employment issues relating to Mr. Paul Sheridan in the fall of 1994; is that correct? And I want to represent to you that all indications are that this trial will last between two and a half, three, three and a half weeks which would put us from November the 18th sometime into the middle of December. Do you have anything that would prevent you from testifying live at the time of trial in Palestine, Texas, when this case is tried? I have no conflicts. All right. And so we can expect to see you there. MR. MILLER: Obviously, counsel, that will be a decision made by Chrysler's counsel. MR. MR. WATTS: Excuse me, I need to make an objection. The objection is is that I object to this witness being asked to expose whatever parts of the issue he wishes to expose and then put the raincoat over the embarrassing parts that may be covered by attorney-client privilege. Paul Sheridan was identified by our security department as an individual who had disclosed confidential information during the course of his employment. That information was brought to the attention of the personnel department in December of 1994, and the personne department, Mr. Smuts in particular, had asked of me to attend a meeting to discuss the fact finding and detail, and provide my legal evaluation, and following that meeting in December of 1994, Mr. Sheridan was discharged from employment. MR. WATTS: I'm going to object to the last response as containing matters that could only be known to this witness by hearsay. And, again, based on the pleadings in that litigation, what is the primary purpose or relief being sought by Chrysler? Chrysler seeks injunctive relief against Mr. Sheridan and damages against him as well for his disclosures. Mr. Ridella, would you state for the jury when it was the first time that you became aware that Mr. Sheridan was making any statements or claims regarding the minivan liftgate latch. The first time that I'm aware of the claims about the minivan latch were in connection with a pleading filed by his lawyer, Courtney Morgan, in early February of 1995. Reference was made in his answer to the minivan liftgate latch. Now, during Mr. Watts' examination of you, he inquired about the visit made by Mr. Dennis Malecki and Richard Winter to this secured area. Do you recall that generally? Yes, I do. MR. MILLER: I'm going to ask the court reporter to mark as Exhibits 3 and 4 the affidavit of Dennis Malecki, filed in the Circuit Court for the County of Oakland, in the matter

MILLER): And specifically, Mr. Ridella, what information was made available from Mr. Sheridan to Chrysler associated with either his suspension or termination in regard to disclosure of any confidential or trade secret information? Mr. Sheridan had admitted to our security investigators that he was the source of the leak of confidential information. Now, Mr. Watts has asked you a number of questions regarding the possession of the files maintained by Mr. Sheridan, but I want the record to be clear in regard to those facts. Were all of the files, both hard copy paper documents and the computer utilized by Mr. Sheridan placed in the security room that you described? Yes. I'm informed that, yes, all those all that information was placed in the locked security room at the Auburn Hills Technology Center. And was all of that information as we've described it placed in this security room on or about December 19, 1994? That is correct. And would you describe again the location of this room, whether or not it was locked and who had		10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23	captioned Chrysler Corporation vs. Paul Sheridan, and the next exhibit is that of the affidavit of Richard Winter, filed in that same proceeding. (Deposition Exhibit Nos. 3 and 4 marked for identification.) MR. WATTS: Just so it's clear, we object to the entry of both of those documents on the ground of hearsay. (BY MR. MILLER): Mr. Ridella, turning your attention to paragraph four, first, of Exhibit4 (sic), that is, the affidavit of Mr. Malecki, and would you read for the jury all of the content of paragraph four of Mr. Malecki. Yes, paragraph four, "In the boxes I came across a large number of the 'sender's copy' of Federal Express air bills prestamped with Chrysler's account number. I removed the Federal Express air bills from the boxes and thereafter gave them to Mr. Fonger. Although I reorganized the contents of some boxes into other boxes, except for the Federal Express air bills, which I gave to Mr. Fonger, I removed nothing from the UPs room or the boxes." And directing your attention to Exhibit No. 4, the affidavit of Mr. Winter, and again, at

It is a locked facility. And the documents were placed in there and keys were maintained by the security manager, Brian Bradley, and access to the room with the key could only be used by Bradley and his supervisors. Now, subsequent to placing the documents in this secured area, was Mr. Sheridan terminated? Yes. And either at the time of Mr. Sheridan's suspension or at the time of his termination, were you aware of any information regarding the minivan liftgate latch that played any role in his suspension or termination? I was aware of none. Now, subsequently to Mr. Sheridan's termination, did litigation develop between Chrysler and Mr. Sheridan? Chrysler filed a lawsuit against Mr. Sheridan in the Oakland County Circuit Court on December the 27th, 1994. That action was filed by Chrysler, again, in the Oakland County Circuit Court and	,	5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 Q 13 14 15 A 16 17 18 19 20 Q 22 22 3 4 A	paragraph four, would you read for the jury the sworn statement of Mr. Winter. Paragraph four, "In the boxes I came across a large number of the 'sender's copy' of Federal Express air bills prestamped with Chrysler's account number. I removed the Federal Express air bills from the boxes and thereafter gave them to Mr. Fonger. I removed nothing else from the UPS room or the boxes. I have had no contact with the boxes in the UPC room since January 3, 1995." Mr. Ridella, what was the interest in the Federal Express air bills described in both of these gentlemen's sworn statements? The purpose of those air bills was they were given to Mr. Fonger for review as part of his continuing investigation of what other information Mr. Sheridan may have disclosed to other parties, other information being other Chrysler confidential information. And subsequently have you been advised that those Federal Express air bills have been returned to the file collection maintained by Mr. Sheridan's Yes. Mr. Ridella, from the time of Mr. Sheridan's termination up until February or March of 1995, where were the files maintained by Mr. Sheridan secured? A They were secured in the locked storage room at the Chrysler security department in Auburn Hills, Michigan. O And during that entire time, state whether or not those documents were available only at your direction or to supervisory personnel. Beginning with beginning in early January of 11 1996 1995, those documents or access to those documents could not and were not accessible except through me. O Now, as a part of the litigation between Chrysler and Mr. Sheridan, you've already described that an inventory was conducted. I just want the jury to understand. State whether or not that inventory was conducted at the direction of the court. A Yes, it was. A Yes, it was. And what role did you play with respect to performing the inventory directed by the court? A There was a hearing before Judge Sosnick on March 1st, 1995 at which time the court indicated that it wanted to have an inventory conducted of the	Park, Michigan, for the move. The individuals arrived at my offices with the boxes and I observed them moving the boxes from the truck to the room at our facilities where they were stored. Q And am I correct in understanding that once they were stored at Highland Park, they were under lock and key under your control? A Yes. At the time that the boxes were being moved from the truck to the room, I contacted a security official at the Highland Park security office to come over and put a new lock on the door of the room in which the boxes were being stored, and that individual finished his work about the same time that the boxes had been unloaded. He then supplied me a key, the only key to the room, and I locked the door behind him. Now, at any point in time associated with the taking of the inventory of the documents or the continued care and custody by Chrysler of those documents, or their removal to the Office of General Counsel, did the court ever order that any log be kept as to who was looking at these documents?

documents. We began that inventory. I was responsible for coordinating it with Mr. Charles Clippert of the Dickinson, Wright law firm. We chose the individuals who would actually be doing the inventory. As I mentioned, those individuals were Catherine Moran, Charles Murphy and Sharon Vasher. They completed the inventory and Mr. Clippert and I assisted in the compilation of the inventory to get it ready for filing with the court. A I recall that it was provided to Mr. Morgan, attorney for Mr. Sheridan, and I believe to the discovery master, Mr. Googasian. I don't recall at this time if we actually filed it with the court. It might have been. Now, did it also come to pass that the court directed that the files maintained by Mr. Sheridan be moved from the Chrysler Technology Center to another location? Yes. Following the court's March 1st hearing, an order was entered on March the 15th and one of the requirements of that order was that the files be moved to a location in Highland Park,	1 A No. 2 Q Did the court ever order that any videotaping be done as to who was reviewing or had access to these documents? 5 A No. 6 Q Did the court subsequently permit Mr. Sheridan and his attorneys to actually physically review the documents which had been maintained by Mr. Sheridan as a Chrysler employee? 10 A Yes. 11 Q And when did that take place? 12 A Mr. Sheridan and his lawyers reviewed the 13 documents to the best of my recollection on three 14 occasions in April of 1995. 15 Q And I think you've already testified that there 16 were representatives in terms of lawyers and a 17 security person for Chrysler who were present 18 during Mr. Sheridan's and his attorneys' review 19 of those files? 20 A Yes. One or all of the individuals I mentioned were present at the time. 22 Q Now, subsequent to Mr. Sheridan and his attorneys reviewing the files that had been maintained by Mr. Sheridan's counsel ever provide a description
Michigan. The move was actually accomplished in compliance with the court order at the end of March, 1995. 4 Q And the new location was at the Highland Park offices that you've described previously of the Office of General Counsel for Chrysler Corporation? 8 A That is right. I secured a an empty room in our offices at the Office of General Counsel, and the documents were placed there. 11 Q And could you summarize for the jury what steps were taken with respect to the transfer of the files maintained by Mr. Sheridan from Chrysler Technology Center to the Office of General Counsel in Highland Park. 16 A Yes. I had organized the move to occur by two movers, two individuals. The movers arrived at the CTC security offices and were greeted there by Mr. Aubrey Stamps, a security guard working at the working in the security office at the Auburn Hills Technology Center. 12 Mr. Stamps was directed by me to observe the loading of the boxes from the security storage room into a truck and to accompany the movers to my offices in Highland	of what they had actually done as a part of that review of the Sheridan files in April of 1995? A You mean provide us a listing of what they had in fact looked at? First, did they provide any kind of listing, yes. A Not that I know of, no. And secondly, did any of Mr. Sheridan's attorneys ever make any representations to the court or the special discovery hearing master with respect to what had been done by Mr. Sheridan and his attorneys in reviewing the files maintained by Mr. Sheridan? A Yes, they did. A Yes, they did. Approximately July of 1995. That's when that occurred. And did you receive were you there at that time? A I was not present. And did you receive any information from Chrysler's counsel involved in the Sheridan litigation as to what description had been provided by Mr. Sheridan's counsel regarding what Mr. Sheridan and his counsel had reviewed in the Sheridan files in April?
