Re: Noel v New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission, et al.

Dear Mr. Wolinsky:

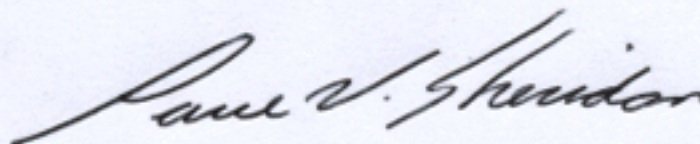

Thank you for contacting me regarding the reference. I believe my experience and expertise could be of assistance in this matter.

I am returning to you the retainer letter of 18 June 2013, with a change to the Fees section; specifically the dot-point atop page 2. This item is in error, as it is described in the Fees section, "... you will waive your expert fees in this matter and provide your time pro bono for all work other than deposition or trial testimony" (underline added). Perhaps I was not clear. My intention, as I stated during our brief telephone conversation, was to provide my services for "expenses only."

I have modified that dot-point consistent with that intent, and signed/dated the letter below.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at any time.

Respectfully,

Paul V. Sheridan

Re: Noel v. New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission, et. al.

Dear Paul,

This letter confirms your retention by Disability Rights Advocates ("DRA") as an expert witness in the above referenced case, pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. Your work may include but not be limited to contributing to the preparation of an expert report or declaration or supplemental submissions in the case, testifying at depositions or in court, and providing expert consultation on the issues raised by the case.

Confidentiality.

While the lawsuit is pending, all communications, correspondence, or other work product prepared or produced by you in the course of your work, as well as all information obtained or learned in connection with your retention in this matter, are confidential and may not be disclosed or otherwise distributed or disseminated in any way without the prior consent and approval of DRA. You may assume that consent has been granted if DRA does not respond to a request for approval to disseminate your work within 30 days.

In addition, it is understood that (i) you will make a reasonable effort to be available upon reasonable advance notice; (ii) you will preserve any written materials, including e-mails, generated or received by you in connection with this engagement, as such materials are potentially discoverable in litigation; and (iii) you will not during the course of this engagement consult for, or otherwise represent, any person or entity with an interest adverse to our client's interests in or concerning the pending litigation, or the events or occurrences out of which the pending litigation arises.

Fees.

As previously discussed, you have graciously agreed that in recognition of the status of DRA as a non-profit public interest firm, you will waive your expert fees in this matter and provide your time pro bono for all work other than deposition or trial testimony.

#0.00

- For depositions or other testimony, you will be compensated at the rate of $450 per hour.

Paul V. Sheridan

Expenses.

The payment of expert fees is not contingent on the success of the lawsuit; you will be paid regardless of the outcome.

DRA will pay for all of your reasonable expenses in connection with your work as an expert on this matter. Any hotel and travel arrangements that will be necessary for your work on this matter will be arranged for by DRA. Please keep all receipts for food and transportation so that we may reimburse you for reasonable expenses. All receipts and records should be submitted to Linda Ballentine's attention at DRA for timely reimbursement.

Please do not hesitate to call me at (510) 665-8644 if you have any questions concerning this retainer agreement. Should you accept the terms of this agreement, please sign below and return this letter to DRA. Please retain a copy of this letter for your own records.

Thank you for your participation in this important matter.

Sincerely,

Sid Wolinsky
Director of Litigation
Disability Rights Advocates
